

COMPANY COMMERCIAL SERVICES

Company Commercial Services

We have considerable experience in advising local business in all aspect of the running of a company including:

Business Start Up

We can assist setting up the company by preparing the necessary start up documentation, drafting shareholder's agreements and preparing director's service contracts. Making sure that these documents are in place will help avoid problems in the future.

Business Premises

We have a commercial property department who can help on negotiating leases on business premises or purchasing the freehold of such premises. We are also able to assist in lease renewal and rent reviews.

Commercial Agreements

We will look and advise you about any contracts which affect your business whether for the sale or supply of goods or the purchase of services from others. We will assist you with your terms of business and any agency, distribution or similar agreements which govern your relationship with third parties.

Directors Duties

The directors of limited companies have an arduous task keeping up with an increasing number of responsibilities. We can help guide you through this potential minefield

Employment

We can provide employment contracts, grievance and disciplinary procedures and provide advice in relation to any grievances or claims made by your employees. Getting correct advice at an early stage is important in order to avoid problems in the future.

Termination

Unfortunately business relationships end and we are able to guide you through this process whether it be by way of voluntary winding up or other routes. We can provide advice regarding how to deal with the company liabilities on dissolution, tax issues and redundancy situations.
