

About Berry & Berry Solicitors

A Quality Commercial Service from Berry & Berry

Berry & Berry are a full service legal practice with a thriving commercial department based at their Tunbridge Wells head office.

Berry & Berry has been established in Kent for over 250 years and enjoys an enviable reputation amongst its private and commercial clients.

The commercial department is based at the firm's head office in Tunbridge Wells and is headed up by the firm's senior partner, Anthony Herman.

In addition to its membership of LawNet, providing access to specialist services, the firm is highly experienced in company and commercial law including the acquisition and sale of commercial property, company formations and takeovers, partnerships and franchises as well as employment law.

The firm's long-established Criminal Department has also been involved in the avoidance of criminal matters that can arise for directors of companies through employment, welfare, Health and Safety and HMRC investigations.

The firm is a member of Lawyers for Business and Eurojuris International, which can assist with the ever increasing pressure on business from EU laws and directives.

Berry & Berry's litigation department is extremely experienced and respected. It can service commercial clients in areas such as breach of contract, licensing, construction law, claims involving the sale of goods and even insolvency and the closure of a business.

Berry & Berry's experienced team, pictured above, are specialists in their own areas and can be contacted by phone or email, as shown opposite.

Robert Moseley joined the firm as a trainee solicitor in 2005 having studied both Law and Legal Practice at the University of Sheffield. Prior to joining the firm, Robert gained a broad range of experience working in the Magistrates' Court on both civil and criminal matters. Upon qualification as a solicitor, Robert has established himself in the firm's Commercial Property Department where he now acts for clients on a variety of property transactions.
